GERMANS HELD IN ZONE JAIL FOR INQUIRY

Captured on Eve of Espionage Trial in New York City

Panama, Panama, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The United States military today held four Germans, one a woman, for photographing key defenses to the Panama Canal.

A court of inquiry will determine whether they are to be charged with espionage on the waterway, vital link in American defense by which the fleet can be shifted from Pacific to Atlantic or back as emergency demands.

The four were arrested Sunday while taking pictures of Galeta Point, first defense of the Atlantic approach to the canal.

They entered Fort Randolph reservation in the morning by auto and denied, the sentry said, that they had a camera. The question is routine to all visitors.

The sentry became suspicious and notified his sergeant two hours later. Search led to the arrests and confiscation of the quartet's camera and automobile.

Film Developed
They were taken to Fort Randolph guardhouse and military authorities said they were: Ingeborg Gutmann, the woman; Hans Schackow, said to be employed by the German Hagap-Lloyd steamship line agency at Cristobal; Gilbert Gross and Edward Robert Kuhrig.

Film from the camera was developed but officers did not announce what the pictures showed. With its great importance to normal, peace-time traffic between the Pacific and the Atlantic, and with far greater potential importance in the event of war, the canal is strictly guarded and those who would loiter are hustled on their way.

The army and navy intelligence service, Canal Zone detectives and Panama police are forces keeping sharp check on unusual activities by strangers or residents of the area.

NEW YORK TRIAL OPENS

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—United States Attorney Lamar Hurd today filed a federal jury today that German spies had transmitted to the Berlin government data on the American artillery forces in the Panama Canal Zone, the strength of the American navy on the east coast, and the specifications of two American aircraft carriers.

Members of this spy ring, he asserted, were three prisoners seated before the jury—Johanna Hoffmann, 26, former beautician on the German liner Europa; Otto Hermann Voss, 36, naturalized citizen born in Germany; and Erich Glaser, 28, naturalized citizen born in Germany and former United States army soldier.

Hardy, opening the trial of the three on espionage charges, told the jury that the spy ring had forged President Roosevelt's signature to a fictitious order to the navy for the aircraft carrier specifications.

Fourth Pleaded Guilty
A fourth prisoner, Guenther Gustav Rumrich, pleaded guilty at the opening of the trial Friday and will testify as a government witness.

Hardy described the alleged conspiracy as directed from Germany, with contact men transferring messages back and forth to agents of German extraction in this country.

He said two officials of the German steamship lines in this country aided in establishing the contact between agents in this country and their directors abroad.

He said a German named Sanders, said to be attached to naval intelligence at Bremen, Germany, had told Rumrich to try to obtain information about operations in American commercial plants, particularly the Dupont company and Bethlehem Steel.

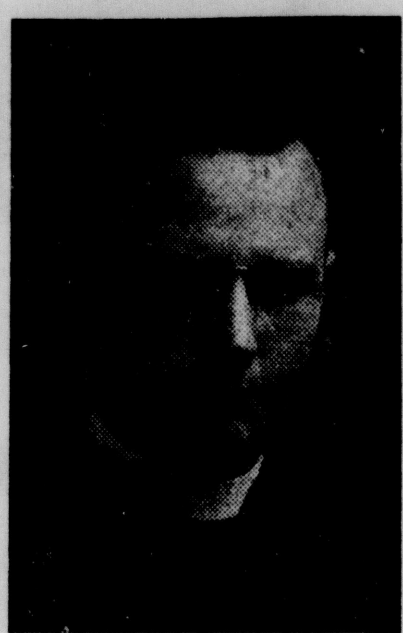

William Lonkowski, one of the alleged higher-ups in the ring, was said by Hardy to have represented himself as a piano tuner and obtained secrets of a military nature from the defendant Voss, an aviation mechanic.

Hardy described Voss and Lonkowski as meeting at the house of Miss Senta de Wanger, a German banker's daughter, who is in protective custody.

EX-PROSECUTOR IS SHOT TO DEATH BY SECRETARY TODAY

Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 17.—(AP)—William Holbrook, 42, former assistant prosecutor of Berrien county, was shot to death in front of the Benton Harbor police station at 12:30 A. M. today, and a few hours later, Mrs. Patricia Dull, his 34-year-old secretary, was charged with first degree murder.

Prosecutor E. A. Westin said that Mrs. Dull had followed Holbrook to Kalamazoo Sunday when Holbrook visited briefly with his estranged wife and that the shooting apparently resulted from that visit.

Upon his return to Benton Harbor last night, Holbrook went to police headquarters and asked police to restrain Mrs. Dull from annoying him. Mrs. Dull then was with him, and police detained her briefly, intending to give Holbrook time to reach his hotel.

Police Sergeant Eugene Murphy said that Mrs. Dull ran from the municipal building when he told her she might leave.

W. J. Pugh, a merchant policeman, said he heard two shots and ran into the street where he saw a woman run toward the public library, across from the municipal building, and then return to fire two more shots.

The merchant policeman said he asked for the gun and that the woman took a .22 caliber pistol out of her purse and handed it to him.

Tax Rulings Withstand Attacks in State Court

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Portions of the state sales tax, insurance and building and loan laws withstood attacks before the Illinois Supreme Court today.

The court upheld four sections of the retailers occupational tax act empowering the department of finance to levy deficiency assessments against merchants.

Two cases in which the court ruled involved assessments of $1,704 against David Cohen and another of $2,808 against Herman Gold, doing business as the United Liquor and Cigar store in Chicago. The decisions affirmed decisions of the Chicago Municipal court.

Upholding constitutionality of the insurance code, the Supreme Court affirmed a decree of the Logan county circuit court authorizing the director of insurance to liquidate the National Bankers' Insurance Company of Lincoln.

In its decision upholding the building and loan act, the court affirmed another Logan county circuit court decree ordering Auditor Edward J. Barrett to terminate the corporate existence of the Logan County Building and Loan association.

Sunday's Warm Sunshine Brought Heaviest Automobile Traffic of Year, Police Say

Summer continued its mid-autumn encore in northern Illinois, bright sunshine and warm breezes sending the mercury to an official high of 87 during the day. All highways were crowded with traffic as motorists took advantage of the warm weather to view the beautiful countryside. The forecast is for fair and continued warm tonight and Tuesday.

Automobile traffic in the vicinity of Dixon over Sunday was reported to have been the heaviest of the year. Thousands of motorists took advantage of the fine fall day and motored through Dixon. Local eating establishments were taxed to capacity and tourists waited for an opportunity to obtain food until late last night. State police declared the traffic to be the heaviest of the year.

COMMUNISTS AC- TIVITIES BEFORE DIES COMMITTEE

Witness Says Moscow At- tempted to Control Farm-Labor Party

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Steve Gadler, St. Paul consulting engineer, told the house committee on un-American activities today that Communists had "tried to take over the Farmer-Labor party."

He added, however, that he wanted it clearly understood he was making no accusations against a majority of the party nor its rank and file. He described them as good American citizens.

"Governor Benson, Congressman Bernard, Congressman Teigan and Mr. Williams are spoken of and written up in all Communist publications as friends to their cause," he testified, referring to Minnesota's Farmer-Labor governor and two of its representatives in the house.

He said Howard Y. Williams, executive secretary of the League for Independent Political Action, and candidate for congress in the fourth Minnesota congressional district on the Farmer-Labor ticket, was called a Communist in the report of a special commission to investigate Communist and other subversive organizations in Massachusetts.

Chairman Dies (D-Tex)
He remarked that the fact that the men were mentioned in Communist publications was "no evidence they are Communists or friends of Communism."

Orders From Moscow

A slightly built individual with a stray lock of hair bobbing on his forehead, Gadler asserted that between 1934 and 1936, the Communist party had "changed their policy in line with orders from Moscow," with reference to Minnesota activities. From a spirit of antagonism, he said, they turned to one of friendship toward the Farmer-Labor party.

"In other words," he said, "about this time they started to enter the Farmer-Labor party and steal it from the people who originally founded it and believed in its principles."

At one point Gadler testified that Earl Browder, head of the Communist party, and Clarence Hathaway, editor of the Daily Worker, a Communist publication, had attended a conference in May, 1936, in Chicago called to form a national Farmer-Labor party.

"This was evidently part of the Communist party line orders from Moscow," he asserted. Gadler declared that soon after Governor Benson had appointed Roger Rutchick as his secretary in 1936, "certain well-known Communists" in Minnesota, "became prominent in state affairs and Farmer-Labor party matters."

Sad Birthday

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Mary Ellen Reardon, who has lain in a deep sleep for nearly seven months, reached her third birthday today.

The child fell into the slumber last March 25 after an attack of measles. Doctors diagnosed her illness as encephalitis lethargica—a sleeping sickness—and expressed doubt that she would recover.

caster J. R. Lloyd predicted today the fall heat wave which has broken records in many parts of the midwest would continue at least through tomorrow.

He estimated a maximum of 80 for Chicago and several degrees higher in downstate Illinois for this afternoon, with correspondingly high temperatures in other midwestern states.

Lloyd said the weather maps showed no indication of rain until Wednesday.

Along the cities which recorded yesterday the highest temperatures ever experienced this late in the season were Springfield, Ill., with 86; St. Louis, 88; Evansville, Ind., 88; Kansas City, 90; Minneapolis and Detroit, 86. Milwaukee, Wis., reported 84.

In contrast there was 7 inches of snow at Helena, Mont., 6 inches at Yellowstone Park and 4 inches at Lander, Wyo.

No Friction

Norman, Okla., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Not even a remote trace of friction lingered after the class election of the University of Oklahoma law school seniors—each of the ninety members was elected president and vice-president.

"We didn't want anyone to feel slighted, so we just elected the whole bunch," commented president—one of them—Glenn Watson.

Each president will serve one day.

JAP INVASION OF SOUTHERN CHINA MOVES QUICKLY

Vital Canton-Kowloon Railway Is Cut Off At Two Points

BULLETIN.
Hongkong, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The Japanese army announced tonight it had straddled the Canton-Kowloon railway "at several points" but reports from areas further north indicated that the rapid Japanese drive toward Canton was meeting its first serious, organized Chinese resistance.

Severe fighting was reported from Wongtong, about 40 miles east of Canton, in what appeared to be the first major battle to decide the fate of the South China metropolis and the vital supply lines radiating from it.

The Japanese communiqué announcing the cutting of the Canton-Kowloon railway, chief link between the British colony of Hongkong and Canton, did not name the points affected, but these were believed to be between Pingwu, 15 miles north of the Hongkong frontier, and Cheungmuktau, halfway to Canton.

Hongkong, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Japan's invasion of South China swept on today with what military observers considered amazing rapidity.

The vital Canton-Kowloon railway was cut in at least two points. One column landed on the Pearl river delta and raced overland to sever the line 15 miles north of Hongkong. Another drove westward and cut it at Cheungmuktau, about midway between Canton and Hongkong.

Other forces crossed the East river after the capture of Waichow and fought their way up the Waichow-Canton highway to within 50 miles of Canton.

Indications that the Japanese intended to drive straight on to the south China metropolis were seen in the fact Japanese warplanes heavily bombarded Tsengsing, Chinese troop concentration point 45 miles east of Canton.

Canton Under Martial Law
Canton was placed under martial law.

Wongsha railway station was hit by 17 bombs yesterday and more than 20 persons were killed in extensive Japanese air raids along the Canton-Hankow and the Canton-Kowloon railways near the city.

Communications between Hongkong and Canton were completely paralyzed. Telephone lines were down making confirmation of many reports impossible.

In many instances it was reported Japanese planes, meeting no opposition, were diving continuously to within a few hundred feet of the ground and machine-gunning the Chinese.

Literally hundreds of hamlets and villages were reported razed or burning as a result of air attacks.

A new Japanese landing at Nantau, on the Pearl river delta near Hongkong, was reported to have been made yesterday with remarkable ease and lack of opposition.

Part of the landing force was said to have reached Shatau, deep bay port on the edge of the Kwangtung-Hongkong border.

Military observers now believe a decisive battle will be fought near Tsengsing, where the terrain is favorable for a defense stand and where the Chinese must block the Japanese or permit an attack on Canton from the east.

Amazing war refugee scenes were being enacted along the East river and at Canton as tens of thousands trudged into the interior. Fully half a million civilians were reported already to have left Canton.

With the Canton-Kowloon railway in the hands of the Japanese and Japanese soldiers practically at the border of Hongkong, the question of Hongkong's economic future now is a commanding one—whether the British colony can continue to receive the benefits of a wartime boom.

Amboy Man Arrested

This morning the officer filed an information in the county court charging Ringenberg with the operation of an automobile on a public highway while in an intoxicated condition. Ringenberg pleaded not guilty to the charge and the hearing was continued until the December term of the county court, when the case is to be heard before a jury. Ringenberg was returned to the county jail in default of bond in the sum of $1,000.

YOUTH CONFESSES TO SAYING OF AN OKLAHOMA SHERIFF

Poplar Bluff, Mo., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Capt. A. D. Sheppard of the Missouri state highway patrol said Albie C. Wright, 24, early today confessed the slaying of Hugh Owen, 48, Nowata county, Okla., sheriff.

The brief, written confession was signed by Wright, Captain Sheppard said, after more than an hour and a half of questioning and after Wright had been named as the slayer by two young women companions.

The two—Betty Jo Randolph, 15, and Elenora Griggs, 19—told Col. Marvin Casteel, chief of the highway patrol, that Wright fired a shotgun blast at Owen last Wednesday after he had forced his way into Wright's home near Nowata.

Confronted by the girl's story, Sheppard said, Wright admitted firing the charge which fatally injured the sheriff and corroborated their statements. The girls were not taken before Wright.

Earlier Wright had denied participation in the slaying and named a companion, Leslie R. Cameron, as the slayer. Cameron, still at large, is believed hiding in the Ozarks foothills.

Tugboat Strike Ties Up New York Shipping

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Three hundred tugboats idled at their piers today, hampering shipping in the world's busiest port as a strike of 2,000 tugboat workers entered its third day.

The strikers, members of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), rejected last night a compromise wage scale offer made by the New York tugboat exchange, an organization of employers.

Joseph P. Ryan, president of the I. L. A., said the union would remain firm on its "minimum" demands: A closed shop, seniority rights, time and a half for Sunday work, $10 a month pay increase for firemen, deckhands, oilers and cooks and a $5 monthly increase for captains and engineers.

To avert an electrical power stoppage threat the strikers agreed to operate three boats carrying coal to city powerhouses.

CHICAGO MAN, GUEST OF KING- DOM FAMILY KILLED IN MOTOR- CYCLE AUTO SMASHUP SUNDAY

Virgil C. Dickson Vic- tim in One of Many Accidents

Virgil C. Dickson, 3316 North Damon avenue, Chicago, aged 32, was almost decapitated Sunday afternoon about 3:45 in an automobile-motorcycle accident five miles south of Dixon on U. S. route 52. Dickson was riding toward Dixon and crashed head-on into a car going the opposite direction and driven by Robert Mead, 626 East Main street, Amboy. Dickson's head struck against one of the hinges of a door and his skull was split.

The young motorcyclist apparently realized the seriousness of the situation as the sole of one of his shoes was almost burned off, the result of his applying the brake with one foot and dragging the other on the cement paving, attempting to avoid the collision.

Traffic Hampered
State Motorcycle Officers Edward Mahan, Boesen and Herbig were dispatched to the scene and relieved the congested traffic condition which followed the accident. The victim's body lay in such a position on the paving that the heavy Sunday traffic moved with difficulty for some time until an ambulance reached the scene and removed the remains to the Jones funeral home.

Dickson had been staying at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Will Morris, life-long acquaintances, who reside in the Kingdom, and left there yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock to take a ride on his motorcycle. He was believed to have been returning to the farm when the fatal accident occurred.

Negro Questioned
D. Johnson, negro of 209 East Fifty-fourth street, Chicago, was questioned by State Officer Mahan and Coroner K. B. Segner last evening, after having been taken in custody by the state officer at the Dixon state hospital administration building. After the questioning, Johnson and his friends were released and returned to Chicago.

State Officer Mahan who conducted the investigation of the accident reported that Johnson had stopped his car on the shoulder of the paving to repair a tire as he and several friends were en route from Chicago to the Dixon state hospital to visit a friend. According to the officer, witnesses stated that cars coming toward Dixon were forced to turn out of the traffic lane to avoid hitting Johnson as he was repairing a punctured tire.

Dickson was reported to have been following two cars which were coming to Dixon and as they approached the parked Chicago machine, the drivers were forced to turn out to avoid hitting Johnson, who was said to have been on the paving. The young motorcyclist also turned out into the traffic lane for east bound cars and crashed head-on into the machine driven by Mead.

The car containing the Chicago negroes left the scene of the accident before the state officers arrived and following the investigation, Officer Mahan went to the Dixon state hospital where he found Johnson and his friends. They were taken to the office of Coroner K. B. Segner where they were questioned about the accident, but not having been directly responsible for the tragedy, were released.

Inquest Held Today

At the inquest this morning, Robert Mead of Amboy and Dr. Howard E. Spafford of DeKalb testified. The latter stated that he had observed the motorcyclist through his rear vision mirror some time before the crash and said that just before the collision Dickson, apparently realizing his danger, threw his hands into the

Had Narrow Escapes

John R. Heyer and Paul Gholson of this city, miraculously escaped serious injury Sunday evening when the former's car was crowded off the U. S. route 34 highway west of Mendota. The Dixon young men were driving toward Mendota when a car going in the opposite direction was reported to have crowded them off the highway. The Meyer car was forced into a ditch and against a fence, the posts of which prevented it from being rolled over. They escaped without any injuries but the car was damaged considerably.

The body of a car belonging to John Segner of Rock Falls was almost demolished last night about 9:30 on the River road west of Dixon, but the occupants escaped with only minor bruises. Segner was driving toward Dixon and was unable to negotiate the curve west of Reynoldswoods farm, the car skidding on the gravel and turning over several times. State Officer Rex Flach went to the scene and had the

All-Lee County Chorus of 183 Student Voices Will Sing Here Thursday Night

An all-Lee county chorus of 183 student voices will be heard Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium as part of the program for the Lee County Teachers' Institute.

The organization, composed of high school students from Dixon, Amboy, Lee Center, Ashton and Franklin Grove, will be directed by Henry Veld, director of a capella choir of Augustana college at Rock Island. Mr. Veld will spend all of Thursday in Dixon, working with the students in preparation for the concert.

The selections which the chorus will sing are ones on which the members have been practicing since the first of September.

The plan is to make this all-county group program an annual affair and to model it after the all-state organization which will sing at Champaign later in the fall.

A. C. Bowers and Miss Carolyn Bergstedt, both of the high school faculty, are responsible for the plan and Miss Bergstedt will act as accompanist.

DON'T MARRY THE MAN

By Jeanne Bowman

THE CHARACTERS

Kathleen Gregory goes west in cognito to vamp a right-of-way from MacDonald for the Gregory mine. She is shocked by the living conditions of the miners.

Donald MacDonald: young owner of the rival mine, hates the Gregorys, has improved the lot of his miners.

Bridget: Kathleen's companion. Yesterday: Kathleen asks her family to repair cottages, give medical aid, but gets a blank refusal. She turns her house into a hospital for flu victims.

Chapter 16

MAGIC IN THE VALLEY

Kathleen was aroused by a quiet chuckle from Bridget.

"You know", she confided, "your Aunt Bee would have had those roofs covered by now. She's a most charitable woman. Only she would have done it her way, regardless of what the miners' wives wanted. I think, dear, that this letter was inspired by pique at your refusal to bring her along."

Next morning, assured the patients were asleep and the nurse on guard, Kathleen ended her night shift by watching the sunrise.

From the veranda, where she had sat that first day in Neutral-ity, she waited for the first tip of gold to appear above the moun-tain peak. There was something cleansing and refreshing in the sight. It seemed to wash away the problems of yesterday and give hope of a better today.

There was the sound of tires moving on gravel. She went to the western edge of the veranda and looked down. Donald Mac-Donald was rolling his car down the driveway. She watched him puzzled, until he saw her and mo-tioned.

"I didn't want to risk waking your patients," he explained in a stage whisper.

Kathleen was touched by his consideration. Slowly she went down to stand beside him until he adjusted the brakes.

"There," he brushed his hands together, then turned to her. Frowning he studied her. "Time you had a break," he observed. "Run back and get into your bib and tucker. You're driving to Carsted with me. We'll be back by ten o'clock, you can sleep the rest of the day."

Obediently Kathleen went to the house, laughed a little at the wan reflection, and reported to Bridget she was off on a lark.

"It will do you good," Bridget assured her. "And while you're away, forget everything."

This was more than Kathleen could do. She drove down to Neu-trality, conscious that the Greg-ory miners, enroute to their work on the day shift were watching her; probably condemning her for being in a car with young Mac-Donald. She was aware of glanc-es which wanted to be hostile and didn't quite achieve it, when they stopped before The MacDonald for the breakfast she hadn't had. She waved to the men on the Gregory side and they doffed their hats.

Mayne served them and beamed on them like a white-aproned cupid. "What did I tell you?" she questioned and Kath-leen couldn't retort without re-vealing to the man across from her that Mayne had prophesied he would "go" for her.

And then they were on the lower highway, the astonishing world of green and orange cliffs, scarlet boulders and natural monuments of pearly white about them.

"Why is it the MacDonald min-ers manage so much better than the Gregorys?" she quired. "I mean aside from their homes. There isn't such a tremendous dif-ference in their wages, is there?"

"There's not enough difference in the wages to account for the difference in their lives," he con-ceeded. "However, you slipped up when you said 'aside from their homes.' It's the homes that make the major part of the difference. I know. The MacDonald miners were very little better off when I first took charge here. The board of directors thought I was a 'crackpot' when I told them of the changes I wanted made. They didn't see it, wouldn't see it, so I started with my own money. I spent every cent my father left me on the homes and the hotel; the town is paying me back for the homes. And the people are paying me a little at a time. I wanted them to have the feeling of individual ownership."

A Fighter Kathleen looked at him curi-ously. Then he had had no more encouragement that she was get-ting. But he was a fighter and a man. Well, she straightened, she was also a fighter.

"That still doesn't answer my question," she demurred. "I want the difference in positive terms."

"The main reason is abstract. Have you ever lived in a place like the Gregory cots, and thought you'd never know anything bet-ter?"

"Goodness, no."

"You'd become saturated with hopelessness and helplessness; es-pecially when you realized that generations before you had exist-ed in this way without change and generations after you would doubtless continue the same way."

As Old Balmly would say, 'your spirit would don its grave clothes and wait for death.' But given hope and the promise of a differ-ent future, you'd find your spirit in sun suits, making the most of every day and the most of every opportunity. And there's where the difference in dollars and cents comes in. I doubt if you've ever had to buy food for a large fam-ily on a small salary, a large por-tion of which has to go for illness brought on by poor housing. If you had you'd appreciate the 'jar' closet Mrs. Arthur showed you. Everything in that, excepting the fruit which I had brought in in carload lots and sold at cost, was grown on her own land. You might say that was poor business on my part, but it wasn't. I learned in that first year, that the miners had more money to spend on other things."

"Too bad the Gregorys don't fol-low suit," said Kathleen with a yawn that wouldn't be stifled.

"I don't blame them. . . . now," MacDonald defended. "They'll have to close down next spring; why waste all of that money on a ghost town?"

Kathleen tried to control her start. She'd never before thought of the closing from the Neutrality standpoint; from the miners' view.

"What will happen to the fami-lies?" she asked.

"I don't know; poor devils. The younger men will probably find work in other mines after a time, but it's going to be tough on the old ones. This is their home. How-ever, they may be better off in the long run. If you stay through the winter you'll understand. Well, such is life!"

The car shot ahead with a burst of speed and Kathleen sat, hands clenched in her pockets. She had to do something, but what? What more could she do than obtain the right-of-way that would keep the mine open? And with the mine open could she force her clan to see the needs of the miners as she saw them? How much money did she have in her own right? How far would it go to-wards rebuilding Gregory? Not far she feared.

Interesting Companion She must think of something. Another time, she was so desper-ately tired.

"I'll get that right-of-way if I have to marry him to do it," she decided, and closed her eyes.

When she opened them she found the car was not moving; that she was lying on the back seat, a blanket tucked around her, a folded coat under her head. Had she crawled over the front seat in her sleep?

"I thought you were going to sleep all day," said Donald, ap-pearing around the car. "Have a nice nap? How's the appetite?"

Kathleen saw by shadows that the sun was mid-heaven. "A fine nap and I'm starved, but have you a little Ali Baba in your pocket?"

"No, in the kitchen of The Mac-Donald. I had a lunch put up while we were having breakfast. Now trot down to that stream and wash your face and I'll find a picnic spot."

Refreshed by the ice cold water, her hair brought to a semblance of order by a wet comb; her lips freshly rubbed and a powder puff rubbed across a nose fast freck-ling without Toimette's care, Kath-leen joined MacDonald.

Young MacDonald, appraising her, laughed suddenly. "I'm sorry. I was just thinking of the way you looked that night on the road."

Kathleen laughed with him, con-fessed to her near hysteria when she saw herself in the hotel mirror and admitted she had vowed un-dying hatred when he'd found the bolts she'd been unable to find.

"Then you admit there is an im-provement?" she asked.

"If you were a blonde or brun-ette, I'd call for a chaperone," he assured her.

Kathleen stiffened, then re-laxed. "I asked for that. Did you mention food?"

Seated on a boulder in the shade of a cottonwood tree, a stream rushing over colored rocks at one side, the road and high cliffs on the other, Kathleen thought of all of the wonderful places she had dined on two continents and won-dered why this seemed more won-derful than any of them.

MacDonald made an interesting companion. She liked to look at him; liked the quick smile, the flash of white teeth under the small black moustache, the way his hair grew back off a tanned forehead, the heavy dark brows which didn't shade the compelling glance of his Scotch blue eyes.

There was magic in this painted valley. Perhaps it was the passion-ate hurry of the stream; the hot brush of the autumn sun on her cheek when she ventured from the shade; or the clear, exhilarating air. She couldn't name it, only feel it and thrill to it.

FIRST HUSBAND OF SINGER HELD; SECOND IS SHOT

Los Angeles Police Investigate Life of Etting's Ex-Mate

Los Angeles, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Jealousy? — or self-defense? — clashed as rival theories today to explain the shooting of singer Ruth Etting's new husband by her divorced mate and former business manager, Martin (Moe) Snyder.

Snyder, held in jail on suspicion of kidnapping and attempting to murder Myrl Alderman, 30-year-old bridegroom and radio musician, was curtly quoted as saying: "He was shooting at me, so I shot at him. Ruth won't prosecute me, because she still loves me."

But there was scant affection in Miss Etting's silver voice as she angrily blamed the gunplay in her luxurious home Saturday night on Snyder, whom she had divorced in Chicago last November after 17 years of wedded life.

"I don't believe I will ever sing again . . . ever," she said, sitting beside the hospital bed of Alderman, who secretly married her in Tijuana, Lower California, last July.

"Snyder was merely jealous. He's not satisfied unless he's making trouble. He's threatened to kill me before—and even telephoned from New York last January to threaten me."

Calls Story Ridiculous

"Snyder's story that Myrl shot at him is ridiculous. That boy never owned a gun. I did, though, one that I had had for years. Snyder's gun was the only one there Saturday night until Myrl had been shot and was lying on the floor. Then I slipped into the bedroom and got mine."

"Snyder saw it. He took it away from me and threw it on the floor. Edith Snyder picked it up and shot at him—her own father. I believe that girl would lay down her life for me. Saturday night she almost did."

Miss Snyder, Miss Etting's stepdaughter and secretary, concurred with the singer that Alderman's recital of events. This was:

That Snyder, at pistol point, forced Alderman to drive him from a radio station to the Etting hillside home, where, in the music room, he threatened to shoot all three members of the household.

(Snyder told police he went there "to discuss arrangements for some Beverly Hills property with my former wife.")

Says He Shot Twice

That Snyder shot twice at Alderman from a distance of 12 feet as the music arranger sat near Miss Etting on the piano bench. Alderman was struck once in the abdomen.

That Snyder wrested Miss Etting's pistol from her grasp, but Miss Snyder picked it up and fired at him as he chased the singer to the kitchen. He was not wounded.

Detective Lieutenant J. R. Stephens announced police are investigating Snyder's record in New York and Washington "on information that he may be wanted for racket activities in the east, although he says he is 'clean.'"

Miss Etting said her entire career from the time she left a David City, Neb., farm to her last job—an English musical in 1936—had been "just drudgery."

"The days since Myrl and I were married have been the happiest in my life."

EXPECT ATLANTIC SQUADRON TO BE PERMANENT FORCE

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The navy's new "temporary" Atlantic squadron, some officials believe, may become a permanent force probably not a major sea force.

The unit was created last month, and was more than doubled a week ago. It now consists of 38 warcraft.

Naval circles heard today it would be augmented further before the year's end by the Memphis and the Milwaukee, the remaining fleet battle force cruisers. They now are undergoing routine overhaul on the west coast.

Three other battle force cruisers, the Concord, Trenton and Cincinnati, are at the Guantanamo, Cuba, naval base, enroute to Norfolk, Va., from San Diego, Calif. Their voyage was ordered unexpectedly during the recent European crisis.

Though the navy officially has emphasized that the squadron was designed to fill a temporary need, some senior officers have expressed the belief privately that the high command may find it expedient to continue an Atlantic squadron without undertaking creation of a separate fleet.

What's Left When a Locomotive Blows Up

ANGER AGAINST CHAMBERLAIN'S MOVE SUBSIDES

British Moved by a New note of National Unity for Armament.

London, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The enraged feelings against Prime Minister Chamberlain's accord appeared today to be subsiding in favor of a new note of national unity to back a quickened rearmament pace.

Newspapers kept up a steady campaign for rapid integration of all civil and military defense measures.

Winston Churchill, bitter critic of the Munich peace, echoed an apparently growing sentiment in a radio address to the United States last night, appealing for American cooperation against "moral and military aggression of dictators."

Rearmament, said Churchill, who was World War First Lord of the Admiralty, would be the "sole guarantee of peace."

Chamberlain returns from his Scottish vacation tomorrow to take up with his advisors the details of spurring war industries to greater strides than in all peacetime history, promised after the Munich agreement with Germany, Italy and France for partition of Czechoslovakia.

To Fill Two Vacancies

The premier had also to fill two vacancies in the cabinet, one caused by the death Sunday of Lord Stanley, 44, Secretary of State for the Dominions, and the other by the resignation of Alfred Duff Cooper as First Lord of the Admiralty.

Duff Cooper quit in protest against the Munich accord.

Palestine's civil war, the furtherance of British-Italian talks on Spain and the Mediterranean, and perhaps English-American trade negotiations are matters before the premier.

The cabinet meeting Wednesday is expected to approve new large arms expenditures, a register of men and women to determine defense availability, and perhaps the creation of a new ministry for volunteer defense work.

There was belief in political circles that ministries of supply and merchant shipping also might be added to insure speedier realization of defense measures.

Churchill's speech last night to the United States was not broadcast for the homeland, but was carried through British Broadcasting Company shortwave facilities to New York.

Scott Lucas Means PROGRESS!

ILLINOIS NEEDS LUCAS!

He's a DOER . . . Not a Promiser!

Active and ambitious, it's Scott Lucas' nature to progress. Born on a farm he worked to pay for his schooling. Admitted to Bar in 1915. Private to Lieutenant in World War. Became State's Attorney, Mason county. Honored by American Legion. Chairman

Illinois Tax Commission, 1933. Elected twice to Congress 20th District. Record shows courage, independence, ability and ACTION! It's a record of real public service—PROGRESS! Scott Lucas will do MORE for YOU in the Senate. Elect him!

PERFORMANCE NOT PROMISES!

REMEMBER, the Democratic Party has accomplished MORE for the Farmer; for Labor, for the underprivileged; for the aged and jobless; for the ex-service man!

Much MORE in six years than was accomplished in the preceding 20 years under Republican rule! Why swap PERFORMANCE for promises which can be termed a "pig in a poke"?

THIS IS THE ISSUE!

"TO THE HILLS! THE WOMEN ARE COMING!"

It is mortally easy to take a running jump into the wrong conclusion, when an unexpected bit of news comes over the horizon; and the report on women workers—submitted to President Roosevelt by John D. Biggers, director of the Federal Unemployment Census—deserves some careful thought before any deductions are based on it.

Mr. Biggers succeeded in clearing up part of the mystery about where men's missing jobs have gone. The women have 'em—to the extent, at least, of 2,704,000 cases.

On the basis of the 1930 census and the normal population increase it was expected that by the fall of 1937—when Mr. Biggers' census was taken—there would be about 11,750,000 women gainfully employed. But when Mr. Biggers made his check-up, he found that there were actually 14,496,000 women holding jobs.

Somewhere along the line, then, something quite unforeseen happened, resulting in an utterly unprecedented increase in the number of women workers.

Census Bureau experts blame it on the depression. Ordinarily, they explain, women enter the labor market at the age of 20, or thereabouts, and leave it a few years later—to be married, or for other reasons. But in the last half dozen years they haven't been leaving their jobs. When male members of the family lose their jobs or can't find work, the woman who has a job hangs on to it.

Now, from all this it would be easy to reach the conclusion that one cause of male unemployment today is the presence of too many women in the labor market. Already you can hear the first faint muttering of stout-hearted males declaring that women's place is in the home. Before long, more and more people will tell us that the unemployment problem won't be solved until women give up their jobs.

Yet this would be one of those easy conclusions that don't stand up under analysis.

Suppose we did chase those extra 2,740,000 women out of their jobs and replaced them with men; we still would have made only a small dent in the unemployment situation. The basic problem would remain unsolved. The nation's payrolls would not be higher by one dime. The total income going to the families of working folk would not be increased in the least.

We would be precisely where we were before, except that the identities of some two and three-quarters millions of the workers would be different.

Nor would we be better off if we went a lot further and replaced more and more women workers with men. We would not have progressed one inch in the direction of improving the general well-being of people who have to work for a living.

The unemployment problem ceases to exist only when any industrious, capable, honest citizen who wishes a job can get one. Any "solution" which doesn't bring us nearer that day is no solution at all.

U. S. FOREIGN TRADE NEEDED

One of the elements which has helped prevent a revival of world trade is the distrust in which the United States economic system is held abroad. Another element preventing recovery is the variety of economic measures, unorthodox in themselves, which can be found abroad.

Specifically, we shall refer to the German effort for self-sufficiency. To those who have overlooked the German situation we offer the explanation that the Germans wish to be able to do without buying goods outside their own borders. For years they have worked to that purpose. It is difficult to see how the success of such a German program would aid Germany in time of peace. In time of war, with the German ports under blockade and imports by land cut off by trenches, Germany would be compelled to depend upon her own resources. That is the reason for the Nazi determination for self-sufficiency. Germany either fears a war or expects to start one. Any measure either within Germany or outside the Nazi reich that would help eliminate this fear of war, or make the Germans feel war unnecessary, would help drive out this self-sufficiency craze and put Germany back into the world market in orthodox fashion.

As an example of trade: Germany produces extremely good lenses for cameras. Their virtue is said to be based upon the fact that the material from which they are manufactured is available only in Germany, and if that is true, then Germany has a monopoly on the finest lenses. We buy these lenses in Germany and install them in cameras of American manufacture. On the other hand, the United States produces oil, cotton, tobacco, grain and other commodities in exportable quantities. If we sell a tanker of oil to Germany, the Nazis pay us for it, but they pay in a certain form of currency which can be spent only in Germany. If the Germans sell us a shipment of lenses, we pay them in a form of currency which is good anywhere—that is to say, it is as good as the credit of the United States government. In other words, the Germans can sell us lenses and spend the receipts of the sale for Rumanian oil. We sell the Germans oil, but are unable to spend the proceeds for Brazilian coffee. This is a bar to easily-conducted foreign trade.

The whole situation points not so much to the need of bilateral trade agreements as to a general lessening of international distrust and fear, and to the necessity for stabilization of foreign exchange.

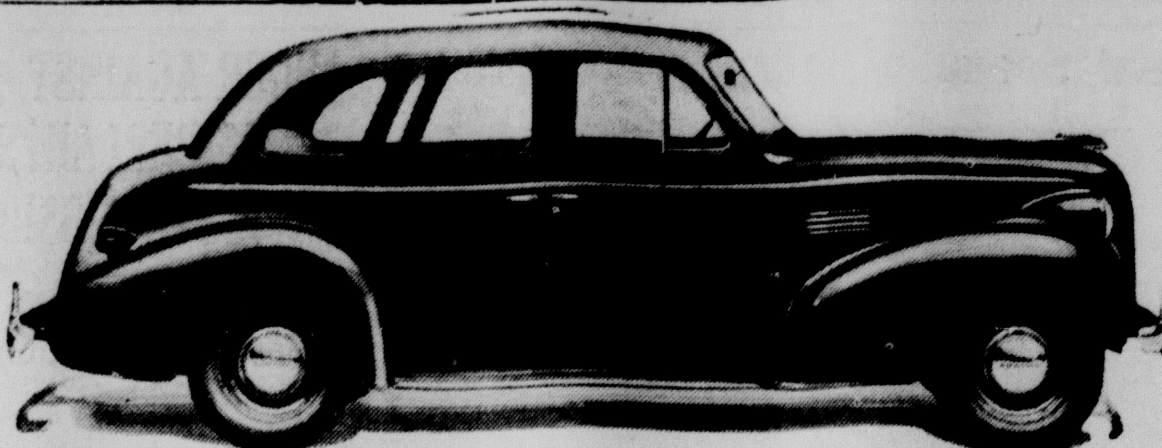

It also points to the need for a sane economic policy in the United States. It has been pointed out repeatedly that the American program of buying silver for more than it is worth has reduced our chances of selling goods to China.

Furthermore, it is said that only recently a group of German economists had almost won Hitler around to a modification of his self-sufficiency program. As we understand the reports, Hitler was almost persuaded to carry out his self-sufficiency program in theory, but not in actual practice. But the recent Roosevelt depression unsettled his mind on that point. He was convinced that if the most powerful nation in the world is subject to violent economic swings and cycles, he had better stick to his own theories. These may not be any better, but at least they are his own.

PRECAUTIONS AND WAR

Jolly tidings, friends. From military medical circles comes the announcement that "the next war" will see greater achievements in the preservation of manpower by medicine and surgery than any previous war in history.

What medical science will shine in particularly are the protection of wounded soldiers from death by infection, the maintenance of good health in the camp and the field, and the repair of shattered bodies. More wounded men will be

WASHINGTON —Although nothing has been said publicly, Administration and business leaders both have decided that the existing old-age pension system will have to be broadened next Congress if the mounting tide of "funny money" schemes is to be stopped.

Privately, New Dealers and business interests are much disturbed by the spread of these movements. Business men fear them as an economic menace, politicians as a danger both economic and political. Drastic revision of the present law is secretly planned on the theory that a stitch in time will save nine.

First step will be taken this Friday when the Advisory Council on Social Security, made up of employers, labor and public leaders, meets to act on a group of far-reaching agreements prepared by subcommittees.

These proposals, which definitely show the effect of pension-movement pressure, are as follows:

1. To increase benefit payments so that both man and wife receive annuities. That is, if the husband is entitled to $50 a month his wife will receive an additional $25 a month as long as she lives. While both are alive they would have a joint income of $75 monthly.

2. If the wife is entitled to a pension of her own, she would have the choice between hers and half of the husband's annuity, whichever gave her the larger income.

3. The widow of a pensioner, upon reaching the age of 65, would receive 75 per cent of the monthly benefit her husband would have been paid had he lived.

4. Life pensions to those suffering total disability at the same rate they would have received had they contributed up to the age of 65.

5. Monthly benefit payments for the dependent children of annuity holders who die before 65.

To better the lot of oldsters not in the contributory system, new proposals are being drafted at the order of President Roosevelt by the Social Security Board, in collaboration with chairman Robert Doughton and Representative John Dingell of the House Ways and Means Committee.

To expedite legislative action, a special Ways and Means subcommittee will begin hearings early in December so that a bill will be ready when Congress convenes in January. The administration's chief revisions are:

1. Increase the present federal contribution for the aged from $10 to $20 a month. This would permit the States to add a similar sum and boosting pensions to a maximum of $40 monthly.

2. Lower the age limit from 65 to 60 years, thus making eligible hundreds of thousands of needy who are excluded by the present law.

3. Increase the federal contribution for indigent children from one-third to one-half. This would equalize state and federal grants.

To aid the battle against "funny money", Doughton, in whose committee all pension legislation must originate, will shortly make a nation-wide radio speech denouncing the Townsend plan and $30-a-month movement.

Medical Monopoly

Justice Department prosecutors have some real surprises up their sleeves in the trial of the American Medical Association and the District of Columbia Medical Society for violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

The two medical organizations—which are affiliated—are charged with operating a monopoly and discriminating unfairly against members of the Group Health plan.

One sensational piece of evidence in the hands of the Justice Department is the case of a Washington woman whose husband was afflicted with appendicitis. When she took him to a hospital she found that none would admit him, merely because she had a contract with the Group Health Association.

After making the frantic rounds of every hospital in the District of Columbia, and with her husband's appendix about to burst, she finally was forced to pay $100 in cash in advance, and only after this was her husband admitted to a hospital.

Union Contract

Another case which will be presented by the Justice Department is that of an Illinois doctor who previously had a contract with an employer to give medical attention to his workers. After the expiration of this contract, the doctor signed a contract with a labor union to give its members medical attention.

The contract with the labor union was identical with that signed by the employer. However, members of the American Medical Association immediately moved to bar him from using the hospitals of that city, and in the end he was barred from all but one.

Justice Department officials believe their case against the two medical associations is sufficient to sustain criminal charges. They have dug up the acts of Congress under which medical associations were incorporated and which specifically prohibit doctors from "regulating the price of medical or surgical attendance on such persons as may need those services."

This is in direct conflict with the by-laws of the District Medical Society, which sets up a scale of fees, plus a committee which creates a closed shop for doctors, and even provides that each member of the "medical staffs of all hospitals, institutions, and clinics" must be "approved by the Medical Society of the District of Columbia."

Gagged Duchess
The Duchess of Atholl, ranking Scotch peeress and member of Parliament for 15 years, was received with open arms in Washington during her recent visit to plead the cause of Loyalist Spain. But this cordiality stopped at the door of the British Embassy.

While the Women's National Press Club, plus several other organizations and individuals, entertained Her Grace, Sir Ronald Lindsay, His Britannic Majesty's towering Ambassador, gave her no public function. However, he did give the Duchess a very blunt lecture about talking too freely. "These Washington reporters," Sir Ronald warned sternly, "are terrorists. You might very easily cause a serious international incident by an unguarded statement. I advise you urgently to be very careful what you say."

As a courtesy to the British Embassy the Women's Press Club waived its usual rule and permitted men to attend the luncheon for the Duchess. But neither Sir Ronald nor any member of his staff showed up—an extraordinary slight to so eminent a visitor.

The Duchess spoke warmly about Loyalist Spain and its heroic struggle against Franco and his Fascist allies, but she nibbled side-stepped possible danger spots. When questioned about the "Cliveden set" (the pro-German clique led by Lady Astor), the Duchess hesitated, murmured something about "they are friends of mine," and abruptly sat down.

Child, Trapped on Ry. Trestle, Meets Death

Momence, Ill.—(AP)—Trapped on a trestle, Lynn Carstens, 11, of Chicago was struck and killed yesterday by a C. & E. I. train. Her body, which was hurled into the Kankakee river, was recovered immediately after the accident by Richard Hollenbeck, a neighbor of the family.

The girl had wandered on the trestle after straying from her parents. Her father, Edward E. Carstens, Jr., saw her and the approaching train too late to effect a rescue. He shouted an order to lie down beside the tracks. The girl complied but a cylinder of the locomotive hurled her off the trestle.

COOPERATION IS CZECHS' POLICY TOWARD HITLER

Apparently Resigned to Fate They Seek Good Will of Fuehrer

Prague, Oct. 17 (AP)—Czechoslovakia appeared today to have switched her gigantic reconstruction task to a new course—cooperation with Germany.

Chancellor Adolf Hitler, it was learned, has assured her that the country now is on a sounder basis and that it can retain its culture and achieve greater prosperity by cooperation within the German orbit.

Czechoslovaks, if not convinced by the rosy German picture, are according to all indications resigned to the necessity of looking to Germany for support.

The past few days have been a striking change in German-Czechoslovak relations, contrasting sharply with the strained situation when Europe seemed on the verge of war over the Sudeten problem.

While the controlled German press now speaks of help for Czechoslovakia, the controlled Czechoslovak press speaks of cooperation with Germany.

"Kind" Treatment Ordered
German correspondents returning to Prague have been ordered to write only "kindly" of Czechoslovakia and have ceased their attacks on the little republic.

An increasing desire to cooperate with Germany was seen in the Czechoslovak cabinet's decision yesterday to send four ministers to Berlin: Finance Minister Joseph Kalous, Minister of Commerce and Industry Imrich Karvas, Agriculture Minister Vladislav Fejraband and Minister without portfolio Hugo Vavrecka.

The size and importance of the delegation was taken as an indication that development of a large program was hoped for by Czechoslovakia.

Responsible German sources are taking an optimistic view of the whole European situation. These sources insist it is absolutely certain that Hitler is not interested in grabbing more territory by threats or force, provided Great Britain and France treat Germany as an equal.

Brain Twizzlers

By PROF. J. D. FLINT

A small ammunition near the heart of the southwest's great oil area had a small interest in a nearby oil well. It didn't produce much cash profit for him but he did occasionally take some of the crude oil to be used, after slight processing, for various needs around his farm. The way he had it processed was to take the crude oil, a barrel at a time, to a nearby, small processing plant which had the equipment to make the crude oil usable. Instead of paying cash for this service the man paid ten percent of the barrel of oil to the processor. The crude oil shrank thirty percent in the processing before the ten percent was taken and the man wondered how much crude oil he would have to take to bring back a barrel of processed oil. Can you find out?

Answer to Saturday's Twizzler
This and that equals four and two-thirds. Half of this and that equals two and one-third. Together they equal seven.

2,000 AMERICANS MISSING IN WAR SURVEY REVEALS

At Least That Many Volunteers in Spain Unaccounted For

Washington, Oct. 17—(AP)—More than half of the 4,000 Americans who took up arms in the Spanish civil war apparently have been lost in action.

Surveys undertaken after the announced withdrawal of foreign volunteers by the Spanish government failed today to account for at least 2,000 men.

State department officials held out little hope for anxious relatives that their fate might ever be learned.

Between 1,000 and 1,200 Americans are understood to be in the units now being withdrawn. Some of them are injured and have been in hospitals.

Between 200 and 300 others are reported still to be in Spanish hospitals, their evacuation being delayed by serious injuries or by difficulty in getting them out of the central zone, which has no communications with France.

Many in Prison Camps
About 100 wounded veterans have returned to the United States. State department reports show 80 to 100 are in General Franco's prison camps.

The department has records of the deaths of only about 200 Americans during the entire campaign. The remainder are simply missing, their fate undetermined after long inquiry by relatives and American officials in Spain. Search has been complicated by the fact many of the volunteers fought under assumed names.

The justice department, meanwhile, has been inquiring into the way the American volunteers got into the war. Former soldiers who recently appeared before the Dies committee said communists recruited them and paid their way to Europe.

Virtually all Americans who went to Spain enlisted on the Madrid government side. The volunteers first went into action on the Jarama river just south of Madrid in February, 1937. Their heaviest losses were in March and April, 1938, when they were caught in Franco's big push down to the sea in Aragon.

MENTAL GROWTH RETARDED

Mental development in the mouth breather is often markedly retarded. This is due to insufficient oxygenation of the blood during sleep. The child awakes, not refreshed, but tired and listless, taking little or no interest in the things that go on about him. Such children are also anemic and undernourished.

Susceptibility to infectious diseases. Those who have tonsils and adenoids removed are less likely to take the infectious diseases when exposed.

Among adults, mouth breathing, as a result of nasal obstruction, is all too common. The deformities as a result of injury block off one or both sides of the nose; especially at night the secretion which ordinarily moistens the air breathed, is not used, and collects in the nose, and when in the morning the activities of the day begins, the mucous membrane shrinks, partially breaking the dam, which results in an overflow of secretion, which is commonly known as catarrh.

This condition of obstruction may cause deafness by the same means as in children, giving rise to blocking off the tube to the middle ear.

Invites Sinus Trouble

Not only does deficient nasal respiration give rise to ear trouble, it also may infect the accessory nasal cavities, or air sinuses connected with the nose, which results in much pain over the cheeks and forehead, and nasal and post-nasal pus.

This, if allowed to continue, sooner or later infects the larynx and the bronchi, giving hoarseness and bronchitis, which do not clear until the nose has been healed by operative or non-operative means.

Those who suffer from chronic bronchitis, chronic hoarseness, chronic catarrh, will do well to consult a competent nasal and throat surgeon and find the cause for the abnormalities. Much can be done in relief.

Those children who are the victims of nasal obstruction and enlarged glands of the neck are in most cases promptly relieved by competent surgical operation.

As a result of recent increases the British government now has 17,000 infantry, two regiments of cavalry, one battery of artillery and several armored cars in Palestine to preserve order.

The triumph of the New York Yankees over the Chicago Cubs in the World Series gave the New Yorkers the distinction of being the first club ever to annex three successive world championships.

Trachoma is one of the most widespread of all eye diseases. Persons who acquire the infection develop thick, granulated eyelids, a white film over the eye and inability to open the eyes in strong light.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

A fascinating pastime with Albert Edward Wiggam, S. Sc., Author of "THE MARKS OF A CLEAR MIND."

"The keenest anguish known to human nature is the pain of a new idea," (Bagehot). We hope this column brings you pain.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. The California Federation of Women's Clubs sent out a questionnaire on this point over their state and the answers were four to one that it had lowered the standards of the home. Especially where there are children it would seem bound to have this result with the mother absent most of the day and worn out with her work when she is at home. She has to keep her mind on two jobs at once—a nerve-racking and well-nigh impossible task.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Most healthy men and probably most healthy women are driven by two opposing motives—the desire for adventure and the desire for security. But the desire for adventure, if there is any chance to exercise it, usually wins. The way apparently peaceful office workers and sales people shoot the chutes, bump the bumps, take high dives and generally risk their necks in autos and airplanes on holidays certainly shows man was not intended by nature to crochet dollies in the peaceful confines of home with an insurance policy on his life. This is the chief reason why it is so hard to drill "Safety First" into people's heads—they like to take chances and hate to be bothered with such silly precautions as safety.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. No. Leaders are largely born and if everybody tried to be like them and direct others, it would make cooperation among the followers impossible. In fact there would be no followers. All society would be like the fond mother, watching the military parade, who said "Everybody was out of step but Jimmy." The one thing we should all strive to develop is intelligent fellowship—the habits of tolerant but active cooperation with our fellows in carrying out the policies of the leader. If we do this and select wise leaders, we have about done the whole duty of man, at least the duty of a good citizen.

NEW TOOLS FOR SURGEONS SHOWN

Instruments Which Give Their Own Light are Among Inventions

New York, Oct. 17—(AP)—New surgical tools which give their own light like fireflies or glow worms were exhibited to the American College of Surgeons today.

One, called a depressor, could be substituted for the spoon which grandmothers used to hold down a child's tongue while looking for a sore throat.

Of clear, glassy material, solid and a quarter of an inch thick, this new tool would glow all over with a green-yellow light. But its lower tip, down in the throat, would shine with a brilliant light to illuminate the entire throat.

These tools are made of a new synthetic material which is as clear as glass. But it has the peculiar property that light will follow its interior around a curve.

The tools are all solid pieces, shaped for a particular surgical purpose, and fitted into handles. In the handle is an electric light bulb. The light can be of any brightness needed. Its full beam will emerge from the opposite end of the tool.

Light only at Ends

By frosting the glassy surface, the interior beams are caused to emerge not only at the ends, but from whatever area they will best illuminate the surgeon's job.

Largest of these new tools are the "retractors," shaped like the handles of canes. They are used in surgery to pull back the edges of a wound as the surgical knife goes deeper.

Others are "transilluminators."

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS OPENED TODAY IN SOUTHLAND

New Orleans, Oct. 17—(AP)—Catholic leaders of the nation gathered today for opening of the eighth Eucharistic Congress while Bishop Joseph Schrembs of Cleveland, in an interview blamed the "sad condition of the world" upon the influence of communism and of men "trying to grasp power."

The bishop expressed satisfaction, however, in the religious and political freedom enjoyed by Americans.

"In the so-called totalitarian state," he said, "the people are cogs in a machine without liberty or self-expression."

"I attribute the sad condition of the world which is living in a maze of the influence of communism and of men trying to grasp power and rule by force."

Noon today signified informal opening of the congress, greatest religious gathering in this city's history, with 14 of the country's 19 archbishops expected, along with 86 of the 94 bishops and about 400 monsignors.

Attention centered upon arrival of George Cardinal Mundelein of Chicago, legate of Pope Pius XI.

Hallowe'en Motif is Chosen for Banquet at Ashton Church

Full of the jolly spirit of Hallowe'en, the Mother-Daughter class of the Ashton Evangelical Sunday school was a gay affair of Friday evening at the church. After assembling in the auditorium at 6:30, the guests were invited into the church parlors, which were completely transformed into an orange and black setting.

Miniature witches astride tiny broomsticks presided over the H-shaped dinner tables. Apples bobbing in a small tub of water, orange and black tapers in red apple holders, and panels of orange and black crepe paper completed the decorative motif. Black cat place cards and nut cups marked the covers, and program folders were in the form of jack-o'-lanterns.

Black and orange aprons and caps were worn by the serving committee. Mrs. Orno J. Kersten acted as toastmistress during the evening's program, which included:

Toast to the daughters, Mrs. W. H. Yenerich; toast to the mothers, Frances Kersten; violin solo, Esther Boyd, accompanied by Donna Maude Sunday; talk, Miss Estella Hokanson; trio, Mrs. Roy Krug, Mrs. Orno Kersten, and Mrs. Fred Schaffer, accompanied by Mrs. L. H. Jennings; remarks, Mrs. Joy Sandrock, the class president. Evelyn Kersten furnished music during the dinner hour.

Mrs. Glenn Pfoutz, chairman of the banquet committee, Mrs. P. O. Bailey of the program committee, Mrs. Roy Krug of the decorating committee and their various coworkers are responsible for the success of the affair. The banquet, an outstanding social event on the church calendar, is anticipated each year by members of the class and their friends.

Individualists Will Please Take Note

As young and gay as their wearers are these pert little jackets of soft, suede-finished material in flattering shades of beige and chamois which go with everything. The youngster who buys one of these gets it with a package of little felt cut-outs with a special adhesive on the back of each. The cut-outs come in all colors and in a wide variety of shapes such as shag dancers, footballs, keys, musical instruments, even vegetables. When she gets home, she scatters the cut-outs over the surface of the jacket in her own sweet way and presses them down with a hot iron. Then they stay in place through sun and rain—and dry-cleaning. Incidentally, if the first package of a dozen doesn't seem to suffice, she can go back and get an extra set and glue away to her heart's content.

Miss Kathleen Ross Becomes Bride of Vernon Rasmussen

Before an altar beautifully banked with rich-hued chrysanthemums, marigolds and zinnias, Miss Kathleen Frances Ross of Amboy and Vernon Leo Rasmussen of Sterling were united in marriage Saturday morning at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Amboy.

The nuptial high mass was held at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Father James Mulcaire, assisted by the pastor, the Rev. Robert C. Troy.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the traditional Lohengrin wedding march, played by Sister Claude, who also was at the organ for selections by St. Anne's choir. Dick McGowan, Jack Kellen, Paul Reed and James McKeown of Amboy served.

Miss Marie Ross was her sister's maid of honor, and Roy Ross, their brother, was best man.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Ross, entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a floor-length gown of wine-colored velvet, with shoulder veil and halo. Wine satin sandals and long white gloves completed her attire, and she carried an all-white bouquet of chrysanthemums and carnations. Her sister chose a floor-length gown of royal blue velvet with shoulder veil and halo of the same shade. She also wore long white gloves, and carried pink carnations and white chrysanthemums.

Both mothers chose dark fall dresses with matching accessories. Mrs. Ross wore a corsage of Token roses at her shoulder.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mrs. Samuel Worcester and daughter, Betty Lou, and Bertha Rasmussen of Sioux City, Iowa; Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Rasmussen of Wyanet, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Linden of Deer Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice O'Brien, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rasmussen and children, Marilyn and Francis, of Tampico, and Mrs. Katherine Rasmussen of Sterling.

A wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents, who were observing the thirty-first anniversary of their marriage. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen left on a week's wedding trip.

Mrs. Rasmussen, who has been complimented with a series of pre-nuptial parties, has been employed at the Amboy Milk Products company for the past two years. The bridegroom is employed at Morris, and the couple will reside in that city.

FANFARE—

By DON DANIELSON

King Baseball has finally abdicated. Football, which has played prince long enough, steps to its rightful position on the throne of local sports. The Dixon baseball club wound up its season in a blaze of glory as the mid-October sun setting over Walton yesterday afternoon. On Friday afternoon the first local football game will be played when the Dixon Alumni meet the high school regulars and the fans fill a stadium which has held only memories until now.

The Sterling high school freshmen will visit the Dixon frosh here tomorrow afternoon for some rough stuff on the local gridiron. This is the second contest between the younger teams. Last Tuesday the Dixon lights held the Sterling boys to a scoreless tie and the freshman heavyweights nosed out a 7 to 6 victory.

Bert Cummings, manager of the Dixon baseball team, sighed when it was all over yesterday and said, "I'm satisfied." And well he should be, for his team—in an organized league for the first year—has played every Sunday (weather permitting) since spring and came out in second place in a three-way tie play-off of the Illinois State Baseball league. Nice going, Bert.

Coach Charlie Roundy's Alumni gridders held their final workout yesterday morning at the high school field in preparation for the game with the regulars of the high school on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The fellows who turned out yesterday were: Littrell, Murphy, Cookley, Burke, Jim Swain, John Swain, Parker, Cruthoff, John Naylor, V. Fotts, Jim Naylor, McMillion, Schrock, Tourtillot, Shuck, Boos, Callahan, Watts, Hippie and Walker.

Maybe it is just as well that baseball is over for Dixon. The club ended up with two bats and not a single ball. The two bats which survived happened to be the same two which were on hand when the season started. A lot of cracked lumber has gone over the dam.

Harold Prestegaard of the Dixon ball team stands out in the just-ended season as the club's greatest utility man. During the year which began on Easter Sunday and lasted until the leaves turned, Harold has played at every position in the infield and filled each capacity as a veteran.

Sterling Community really has a powerhouse, for all indications. During a scrimmage practice here a few weeks ago the visitors made shreds of the Dixon line. In a city contest Community defeated Sterling Township a couple of weeks ago and Saturday they trimmed St. Thomas high of Rockford by the overwhelming score of 27 to 0. McDonnell scored three touchdowns for the winners with Abst getting the fourth and Curran place-kicking three out of four attempts for the extra points.

CHICAGO'S BEARS AND REDSKINS ATOP FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Chicago, Oct. 17—(AP)—Chicago's Bears and Washington's Redskins remained atop their respective sections of the National Professional football league today—the Bears after the loop's biggest touchdown spree yesterday and the defending champions after the low scoring game of the day.

Both leaders, narrowly averting defeat yesterday, face stiff opposition in next Sunday's games. The Bears will entertain Cleveland; Philadelphia goes to Washington. The Rams, in fourth place, gave the Western division leaders their only setback in fave games.

Philadelphia holds the No. 4 spot in the Eastern section but the Eagles gave the Redskins a merry inaugural before bowing. In the week's other games, Pittsburgh will play at Green Bay, which crushed Brooklyn yesterday, 35 to 7. Brooklyn will go to New York, where the Giants won a game of fumbles from Philadelphia, 17 to 7, all three touchdowns came after miscues. The revived and revamped Chicago Cardinals, who outgained the Bears in every department yesterday but lost the scoring end, 34 to 28, will face Detroit, which succumbed before Washington, 7 to 5.

Nine touchdowns were scored in the Chicago game as the Cards, trailing in the third period, 34 to 14, came back with a barrage of passes that fell one touchdown short of catching the Bears. It was the Bears' fourth triumph of the season and kept them ahead of Green Bay, which took over second place from Detroit. The defeat was the fifth against one win for the Cardinals, five of whose players were dismissed recently in an effort to shake the team out of its slump.

Crowds totalling 110,651 saw yesterday's games. At Detroit, the attendance was 42,50, largest ever for a grid game in the Motor City.

DIXON BASEBALL TEAM TRIUMPHS IN FINAL GAME

Defeat Walton Yesterday At Homecoming Event, White Sox Day

Shin guards, masks, gloves, fungo bats with other equipment are being stored away today after Dixon's baseball team ended its season at Walton yesterday in a blaze of glory and a 9 to 2 triumph over the villagers.

It was homecoming day at Walton and three of the Chicago White Sox were on hand to add to the attractions of the day. Head Coach Billy Webb, Pitcher Rigney and Second Baseman Meyers responded to Father D. R. Daley's invitation to a menu of chicken and baseball. Due to a ruling by Judge Landis none of the Sox could participate in the game yesterday.

In the early innings of the game the Dixon players looked as though they were "hinting" for jobs with the Sox as they played cracker-jack ball, but with a 5 to 1 margin, they began to slip in the closing innings and at one time very nearly gave the ball game away.

Haas and Knauer Pitch

Elmer (Lefty) Haas, who is now property of the Philadelphia A's, hurled for the first five innings and allowed Walton only three hits. Kay Knauer, star West Brooklyn pitcher, took up where Haas left off and permitted only two hits. Haas struck out two and walked one. Knauer struck out three and one batter walked, hit 4 by a pitched ball. He also showed a record of 4 hits in 6 times to bat.

Louis Bevilacqua, who also plays halfback for the Dixon high school football team, pitched four innings for Walton and Howe, formerly of the Nebraska state league and now property of the St. Louis Browns finished the game.

Neither team scored in the first inning and no one connected for hits, Walton's trip to bat in the initial frame was marked by a sensational catch by Lebre at short and a quick peg to first to nab B. Welty. Lebre played a bang up game all day with another catch in the sixth to retire Full. Besides his infield work, Lebre also got two hits, a single and a double, in three times to bat.

Knauer got a single in the first half of the second but failed to make it count. The next three batters were retired.

Wild Third Inning

In the wild of the third Dixon went hog-wild as ten men came to bat for five hits and five runs. A. Carlson started the apple rolling with a double to right field.

Kuhn was the first out, pitcher to first, and Carlson went to third. Flanagan got a single to left field and Carlson scored. Haas came to bat and cracked out a beautiful home run to score Flanagan ahead of him. Miller connected for a single and came in on a double by Kay Knauer. Windmiller took first and went to second on an error by D. Welty at short and Knauer came home. Harold Prestegaard was out from third to first. Lebre walked and A. Carlson, on his second trip to bat, struck out.

E. Bushman got a double in the last of the third and took third on a play to get B. Welty but was called out trying to get home.

Walton Scores

Walton's first run came in the last of the fifth frame when, with two away, D. Welty beat out a double, took third on third baseman's error and came home on a blocked ball.

Dixon scored another run in the sixth frame when Flanagan took first when he was hit by a pitched ball, stole second, made third on the first baseman's error which gave first base to Leonard, and came home on a play from short to second to get Leonard as Miller took a fielder's choice. Knauer got another hit but the side was retired on O. Prestegaard's fly to right field.

Walton got its other run in the last of the seventh when Sweeney hit for a double, took third on a play to get B. Bushman at first and came home on an error by the second baseman.

In the ninth Dixon brought in three more runs on five hits: a single by H. Prestegaard a double by Lebre, a single by Flanagan, a single by Leonard, and a double by Miller.

In the last of the eighth, three errors on Dixon filled the bases for Walton but B. Bushman struck out and ended the threat.

Iowa Soph Leads Big Ten Scoring Honors

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Jerry

Niles, Iowa's sophomore fullback, took over the individual scoring

lead in the Big Ten conference

this week with a total of 16 points for two games.

Four of the points came on kicks after touchdowns and supplied the margin of his lead over four other athletes who, along with Niles, had scored two touchdowns apiece. They were Ray

Murphy, also of Iowa, Paul Kromer of Michigan, Bill Schmitz of Wisconsin and John Davenport of Chicago. All are halfbacks.

Seventeen other players had scored one touchdown apiece.

MINNESOTA CAN NOT BE DOWNED THIS WEEK END

That is the Only Thing Which Can Be Certain For Next Saturday

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—After a close survey of the weekend wreckage, it can be stated definitely today that of the 30 major football teams still undefeated, Minnesota's Gophers will not be beaten this week. They don't play.

Nothing else can be guaranteed—not after a week which saw 20 big-time outbites bite the dust for the first time, including such prime favorites as Cornell, Navy, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Holy Cross, Alabama and Oregon.

Subject to change without notice, the chief powerhouses right now appear to be Pitt and Dartmouth in the East; Minnesota and Notre Dame in the Midwest; Texas Christian, Baylor, Oklahoma and Texas Tech in the Southwest; California and Santa Clara on the Pacific slope; and Tennessee, Vanderbilt and Duke in the South.

This week's program, outlined below, may change the situation completely by this time next week.

EAST

The intersectional angle is strongly stressed in the middle sector. Pitt, which overpowered hitherto unbeaten Wisconsin, 26-0, meets Southern Methodist, already beaten by Marquette. Yale, led to a sensational 9-7 upset victory over Navy by Gil Humphrey, takes its stand against powerful Michigan which bowed to Minnesota, 7-6. Fordham, tied by Purdue's closing rush, 6-6, meets Oregon's Webfoots who suffered their first defeat in a 27-16 rout by Stanford. Holy Cross, whose first defeat since 1936 was a 7-6 loss to Carnegie Tech, tackles unbeaten Georgia; Duquesne plays Mississippi State, which suffered its initial loss to Auburn, 20-6.

On the purely sectional side, Boston college, Dartmouth, Georgetown and George Washington all risk unmarred records. Boston college, which beat Detroit, 9-6 last week, plays Temple which routed previously unbeaten Bucknell, 26-0. Dartmouth, whose second half rush buried Brown, 34-13, for the Bruins' first defeat, meets a courageous Harvard outfit which finally surrendered to Army, 20-17.

Penn, tripped by Princeton, 13-0, and Columbia, stopped by Colgate, 12-0, clash at Philadelphia. Cornell, beaten by undefeated Syracuse, 19-7, will try to start again against Penn State. Navy and Princeton get together at Baltimore. Army eases off against Boston university.

MIDDLE WEST

The only major game of the entire national stage which involves two undefeated and untied teams sends Carnegie Tech against Notre Dame, 14-6 conqueror of Illinois. Syracuse may find a Tartar in Michigan State which routed West Virginia, 26-0. Colgate plays Iowa, which gained a 27-15 decision over Chicago. Texas Christian's Horned Frogs, who rolled over Texas A. and M., 34-6, meets Marquette as Creighton and West Virginia get together at Omaha and Kentucky, upset by Washington and Lee, plays Xavier at Cincinnati.

With Minnesota, the leader, idle, the Big Ten program is headed by a clash between Illinois and Northwestern. Purdue meets Wisconsin and Ohio State works out with Chicago in other conference games. Indiana, tied by Nebraska, 0-0, plays Kansas State team, good enough to whip Marquette last week, 6-0.

In the Big Six, Iowa State's Cyclones, who tripped Missouri, 16-13, for their second straight conference win, seek another against Kansas, beaten soundly by undefeated Oklahoma, 19-0. Oklahoma, meanwhile, will be playing Nebraska. Missouri meets Washington university (St. Louis) of the Missouri Valley conference.

SOUTH

South eastern conference warfare finds Alabama, 13-0 victim of Tennessee's Vols, playing hapless Sewanee. Georgia Tech, nipped 6-0 by Duke, meets Auburn, and Vanderbilt, whose fourth quarter rally stopped Mississippi, 13-7, tangles with Louisiana State. Unbeaten Tennessee has a "breather" with The Citadel.

A heavy Southern conference finds the two leaders, Duke and North Carolina, arrayed against Wake Forest and Davidson, respectively. Virginia Military, with a victory and a tie to its credit so far, plays William and Mary. Other conference pairings are Clemson and South Carolina, North Carolina and Furman, Washington and Lee and Virginia Tech.

SOUTHWEST

Rice, whose third successive defeat was a 26-17 shellacking by Tulane, begins conference competition against Texas, shelled 42-6 by Arkansas. Baylor, 14-0 conquerors of Centenary, plays Texas Aggies.

FAR WEST

Stanford and Southern California, who share the lead with California, collide at Palo Alto. California, which whipped U. C. L. A., 20-7, plays Washington, beaten surprisingly by Oregon State, 16-6. U. C. L. A. must meet the unbeaten independent, Idaho.

Undefeated Santa Clara plays Arkansas and unbeaten but tied San Francisco draws St. Mary's Gaels as its next test.

Rocky Mountain "Big Seven"

Brigham Young, Utah and Colorado State all are unbeaten so far, though all three have been tied. Utah meets Utah State, upset, 7-0, by Denver; Colorado State meets Colorado, and Denver plays Wyoming. Brigham Young wanders outside the conference to meet Portland.

STATE COLLEGE ELEVENS CLASH THIS WEEK END

Illinois College Makes Debut in Conference Against Wesleyan

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Illinois college, co-champion with Bradley last year, will make its 1938 football debut in the Illinois college conference this week against Illinois Wesleyan.

Two other conference battles are billed. Lake Forest's undefeated eleven will seek its third title triumph in a row at Millikin's expense. Augustana and North Central will be after their first victory in the other.

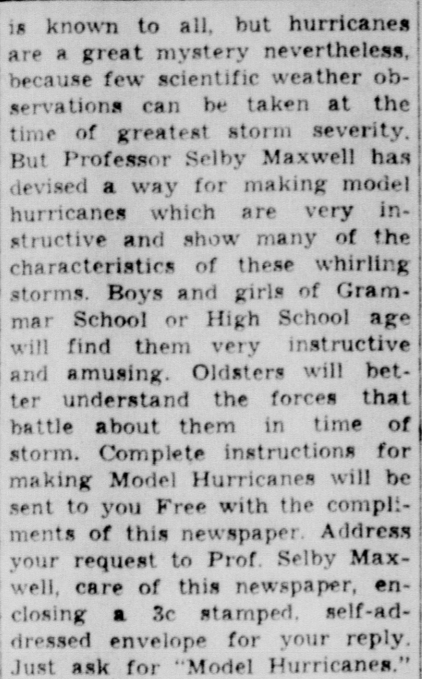

The Illinois Intercollegiate conference also has three title games ahead with the spotlight directed on the State Normal-Eastern teachers contest. State Normal defeated Western 19 to 0 last week to tie Northern Teachers for the lead and can take over undisputed first place with a victory Saturday. Carthage makes its first conference start against Elmhurst. Western and Southern Teachers supply the other game.

Bradley, which maintained its undefeated record last week by defeating Carleton 26 to 6, will continue its non-conference action Saturday against Omaha. Northern Teachers will meet Duquesne after successfully thwarting Wheaton's try to break the DeKalb team's long reign of supremacy. Northern has not lost a game to Wheaton in 17 years. It won Saturday 18 to 7.

OBITUARY.

Jacob Boyd Farver, son of the late Theodore and Margaret Farver of this place, was born in the state of Pennsylvania November 1, 1869. He passed away from this life in Mayo Brothers hospital, Rochester, Minn., October 1, 1938. His age at death was sixty-eight years, eleven months and six days.

At a very early age he migrated with his parents from the state of his birth and settled in Franklin Grove. He grew to young manhood here and attended the local school.

In 1893 he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Stoudt of Nachusa. To this union two children were born. Mrs. Ruth Baker of Mt. Morris and Mrs. Reeta Nielson of Keokuk, Iowa. These daughters with their mother survive. He also leaves three brothers and one sister, Barton and Calvin of Batavia, Ill., Harry Farver of Fairchild, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Emma Evans of State Center, Iowa.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Farver resided in Nachusa for some time and then moved to Ashton where they resided several years. Later they moved to Rockford where Mr. Farver held a position with the J. I. Case Company. When a resident of Ashton he was engaged in the blacksmithing business. Mr. Farver was elected mayor of Ashton five times, his first being a year term in 1901. In his second term, 1903-1905, the municipal gas plant was built. During his third term, 1905-1907, the water works plant was built. During his fourth term, 1907-1910, the sewer system which had been started, was finished. During his fifth term, 1910-1912, much paving was done.

Mr. Farver became a member of the Ashton Masonic fraternity in 1911 and was very active and a past master. He was also a member of Ashton Chapter No. 1, E. S. For many years he has been a regular attendant of Class No. 6 of the Methodist Sunday school. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the local Methodist Episcopal church, Jan. 3, 1939, at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. H. Galt, pastor of the Lutheran church of Mt. Morris, officiated. Services at the grave were in charge of the Rev. J. H. Galt. Burial was in the Mt. Morris cemetery. Bearers were: John Charters, Harry W. Pierce, A. O. Moore, John A. Wagner, H. J. Orner and Ralph J. Dean.

PASTOR RETURNED. Rev. Ralph M. Dreger was returned for his second year's pastorate of the Franklin Grove and Ashton Methodist churches, Jan. 3, 1939. Rev. Dreger announced the appointments for the year at the 90th annual session of Rock River conference which was closed Sunday evening in the local Methodist church. Rev. Dreger was ordained Sunday afternoon by Bishop Waldorf. Twenty young men as deacons and elders.

Former pastors have been returned to various charges are: Rev. A. E. Simister for his seventh year at Prophetstown; Rev. J. Tavenner for his fifth year at Centerville; Rev. F. A. E. Graham returned third year to Gross Park, Chicago; Rev. Louis E. Winter second year at Minooka, Rev. Harold Olson, who has returned to the church at Channahon and Channahon has been transferred to the church at Elizabeth. Rev. W. S. Eaton, a supply, has been assigned to Light-house and Channahon.

A conference was made in the list of district superintendents. Rev. Scott Hayde, superintendent of the Chicago Western district, has retired from the active ministry and has been succeeded by Rev. John Schneider, pastor of the Albany Park church.

ATTENDED CONFERENCE. Rev. F. L. Louie accompanied several representatives of the Presbyterian Sunday school to Dixon Tuesday evening to attend the first of five weekly conference study classes held in the local church. Rev. Louie and Mrs. Grafton are both instructors in the conference. The conference is divided into classes, each of which represents a grade of school work. Those from here who attended the fellowship supper preceding the conference were: Mrs. Wilbur Dvart, Misses Dorothy Tholen, Eleanor Yocum, Mary Jane Miller, Janet Meyer and Maxine Gras. Those attending the conference in the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Black, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and daughter Vivian, and Miss Eunice Miller.

BREAKFAST IS OVER. About two weeks ago Circle 2 of the Methodist Ladies Aid society decided to have a Galloping Breakfast. Mrs. Roy Shoemaker and Mrs. Harry Patterson were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements. Each member had the privilege of inviting a guest. The idea was for no one to know the day of the breakfast. And when the committee called before nine o'clock in the morning, each one had to go just as they were dressed. If any change was made a fine of ten cents was charged. Much real interest and fun has been had. Women getting ready each morning and no one coming for them. The anxiety has been going on for nearly two weeks. Wednesday morning about eight o'clock the committee started out in two automobiles and proceeded to the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Durkes, who didn't know whether they were going to remain at her home for breakfast or not. However, the committee finally took the group of thirty-two women to the Mrs. Patterson home where they enjoyed creamed beef and toast, apricot sauce, oatmeal and coffee, and lots of fun. The Circle cleared about $5 for the Galloping Breakfast.

The eight are Byron, Stillman Valley, Forreston, Monroe Center, Leaf River, Kirkland, Ashton and Franklin Grove. Franklin Grove will compete in regular league competition in basketball in the new circuit this year. Both lightweight and heavyweight teams will be given a trophy for leadership in their respective league standings. During the Christmas holiday season a tourney will be held for the schools in the conference, the first night's games being held at Kirkland, the second night at Leaf River and the final night at Monroe Center. The conference will sponsor a track meet in the spring and a six man football league in the fall.

'Small Fry' Ready to Be Grilled

A widespread and insidious spy ring is expected to be revealed as prosecution of the above accused "small fry" gets under way. High German government officials, also indicted, are beyond reach. Star government witness is Guenther Gustave Rumrich, right, who confessed complicity as the trial opened in New York Federal Court. An army deserter, Rumrich was caught trying fraudulently to obtain passport blanks for the use of associates. Erich Glaser, left, air corps private of German origin, is charged with stealing the plans for an army plane. Otto Herman Voss, shielding his face, was a mechanic in the Seversky airplane factory.
